

QUICK QUIZ

(NAPS)—How well do the facts on phones ring a bell with you? Taking this little test can help you tell.

1. The country with the most mobile phones is (a) the U.S. (b) Britain (c) China?

2. The country with the most phones per capita is (a) the United States (b) Monaco (c) Britain?

3. Currently, Americans are free to choose their local phone company. True or False?

4. According to one consumer group, Americans could (a) lose (b) save, $10 billion a year in local phone costs?

Answers

1. (a) Americans have over 35 million mobile phones. 2. (b) In Monaco, there are 96 phones for every 100 people. 3. (a) False. Consumers have little to no choice at all. 4. (a) The Consumer Federation of America estimates consumers could lose $10 billion per year if the regional Bell companies are allowed to enter long distance markets before effective local competition has been established.